Basic Section Format

Section Subtitle or By-Line

This is the basis section format. Article topics are intended to inform the UPG members, parents, district administrators of the efforts of UPG or the district or of issues affecting either.

Topics can be derived from a number of sources including:

UPG officers and members
School District Administrators
Individual School Administrators
Other sources as determined by review

Topics may include anything of interest to UPG members or parents of students in the district.

Of particular interest are discussions of the following:

Organizational Changes or Direction for UPG or the District
Issues or Changes to District Curricula
Initiatives for Teachers or Students
State or local governmental issues affecting the district
Summaries of relevant studies
Descriptions of upcoming or recent events
Other topics as determined by review

Preparation and control of the newsletter is by the UPG editorial committee and/or officers of UPG.

The newsletter will be published as needed and as material is available. Distribution will be made to all schools and the district website. Notice of availability will be provided to all officers, parents and district administrators.

UPG is a non-profit organization of parents formally recognized by the School District. The School District has not released your name, address or e-mail address to us, unless previously authorized by you.

The United Parents Group

Mission Statement

The United Parents Group (UPG), an umbrella organization comprised of parent representatives from all the public schools in the Cheltenham School District, serves as a vehicle to facilitate communication among parents, administration and the school board to ensure the continued excellence of education provided by the District.

Please, visit us on the School District Web Site at:
